NEW QUESTION: 3

You have 3 reference computer that runs the English version of Windows 7 Ultimate.

You plan to provide customers with the ability to switch between an English user interface (UI) and a German UI in Windows 7.

You start the reference computer in audit mode.

You need to add the German language pack to the reference computer.

Which two possible tools can you use to achieve this goal?
(Each correct answer presents a complete solution. Choose two.)

- A. Programs and Features in Control Panel
- B. Region and Language in Control Panel
- C. Windows Update
- D. Computer Management
- E. System in Control Panel

Answer: B,C

Explanation:

C: In Windows 7, you can download languages in two ways:

* Using Windows Update. If you're running an Ultimate or Enterprise edition of Windows, you can download available language packs by using Windows Update. Language packs installed using Windows Update provide a fully translated version of Windows dialog boxes, menu items, and help content. All the languages available for this type of download have a "Learn how" link in the right column of the table below.

*Using Microsoft Download Center. You can download Language Interface Packs (LIPs) from the Microsoft Download Center by using the links below.

C,D: Install a Language Pack (LIP)

1.Open the Control Panel (icon view), and click on the Windows Update icon. OR

2.Open the Control Panel (icon view), and click on the Region and Language icon. Click on the Keyboards and Languages tab, then click on the Install/uninstall languages button.
