NEW QUESTION: 2

The FIRST step in establishing a security governance program is to:

- A. prepare a security budget.
- B. conduct a workshop for all end users.
- C. obtain high-level sponsorship.
- D. conduct a risk assessment.

Answer: C

Explanation:

The establishment of a security governance program is possible only with the support and sponsorship of top management since security governance projects are enterprise wide and integrated into business processes. Conducting a risk assessment, conducting a workshop for all end users and preparing a security budget all follow once high-level sponsorship is obtained.
