NEW QUESTION: 3

Murielle, from Noah industries, issued a purchase order for 100 inventory items. The vendor delivered only 75 items, and promises to deliver the remainder in two or three weeks. Murielle wants to generate a goods receipt PO to reflect the receipt of the items in stock, but does not know how to enter a partial delivery in the system. What is the best way to do this?

- A. Create a goods receipt PO based on the original purchase order, and modify the quantity selected from the purchase order. This way, the purchase order remains open with the appropriate quantity.
- B. Reduce the amount on the original purchase order to match the delivered amount before creating the goods receipt PO. Create a separate purchase order for the remaining quantity.
- C. Create a goods receipt PO based on the original purchase order, and copy the entire quantity. Then add an additional row with negative quantity, so the purchase order remains open with the appropriate quantity.
- D. Create a goods receipt PO for the actual quantity delivered, and save it as a draft. When the rest of the items arrive, link the original purchase order so it will be closed.
